Mr. Oliver Wendell

London 31st January 1769

Sr

I confirm the foregoing Copy of my last respects, since which am favoured with yours of 4th Novemr for the contents of which am much obliged to you & have the most entire confidence in your promise of making me Remittances from time to time as the Effects of our late friend come in — The 3 bills you remitt me for £200 drawn by Mr Hancock & £85 by Mr Hewes on myself & for £38.10.3 on Richd Cumberland Cagt are accepted & placed to the credit of Mr Quincey's Estate & notice shall be taken in the Account of their being Recd from you agreable to your desire — I have conformed to Capn Freeman's agreement for the 1/100 of the Pratt & have credited the Estate £310 as Recd on the 1st of October last, though the time of purchasing this part is very disadvantageous for me as she must return from hence nearly if not quite dead freighted — In the Account Sales of the Goods Mr Quincey consd me by the Pratt last Voyage I omitted charging the Primage wch I supposed had been paid at Boston, but Capn Freeman has now called upon me for it & upon looking into the bills of Lading I find it was not paid I have therefore been under a necessity of paying it & have debited Mr Quincey's Estate for the Amount being £6.13.— which you'll please note to my credit in his Books I promise my self I shall receive some further Remittance shortly Sir
